NEVADA'S SALVATION.

Senator Jones Says It Lies in Irrigation and Favors the Establishment of an Elaborate System by the State.

New York, October 11.—United States Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, who is on his way home from his Congressional duties at Washington, is stopping at the Hoffman House.

Speaking of Nevada he said: "Well, I have no doubt but the Republicans will be successful this Fall, and with an increased majority. The member of Congress and the Legislature will be elected, and the coming Legislature is to elect a United States Senator to succeed myself, and there will be a vigorous contest for the place. There may be a Republican candidate to compete with me, but I trust I am not transcending the bounds of modesty when I say that I anticipate re-election."

Inquiry was made whether the downward course of the State in regard to population and wealth could not be arrested.

"There is but one way in which that can be done," was the reply, "and that is the assumption by the State of good and arid lands which are within her borders, and establishing an elaborate system of irrigation. We should have been glad if the United States had undertaken this enterprise, but as it was not done we shall push a little bill for the scheme I have outlined through the Legislature next session."

The Mayor of Rochester, New York, has ordered the police to pull down and cover up all the objectionable theatrical posters which represent the female form divine in either short or low-necked dresses. The pictures of Marie Wainwright were considered objectionable, because they represented her with dress cut low in front and back. The Mayor is evidently trying to counteract the recent penchant for the nude, says the Ogden Democrat, which has developed among theatrical people and play-goers. Miss Johnstone's representation of the model in "The Case of Olemuncie" in New York City started this last departure from the old lines. How far it will go before a reform takes place is just at present hard to determine.

The population of the State of New York is 5,981,934, representing an addition of 899,063 during the past ten years. The fellows who worship large percentages will not consider this a big increase, because expressed that way New York will not show up as well as Memphis and other progressive places. Still an addition of nearly 900,000 is a handsome one and is bigger to its way than the population of nearly half of the States of the Union. To appreciate the magnitude of the increase it is only necessary to reflect that it represents a greater population than California contained ten years ago.

C. F. Huntington left New York City Saturday night for San Francisco and will not return until after the general election. His departure, following so soon after that of Leland Stanford, gives more confirmation to the reports of a conflict between the capitalists, and it is expected that the fight will include the contest for the control of the Southern Pacific Company.

Some silly rogue, who had learned the exact location of the boxes and barrels in a store at Woodstock, Ga., crawled under the floor and bored augur holes through the floor into the coffee and sugar barrels and then by holding a sack under them, succeeded in getting a supply of those articles.

The Elko County Democratic Convention passed the nomination of any legislative ticket, so that the Republican nominees for Senator and Assemblyman will have no opposition. The Elko Democrats feel kindly towards Senator Jones, and have no disposition to make any fight against him.

The German fleet is already so important that it stands at 139 vessels in a French estimate of naval and effective forces, which gives only 191 to France. Italy comes before it with 152 vessels; Russia before Italy with 185, and England before all of them with 383.

Emperor William in a recent interview said that the sage of Friedrichshagen had tried to force upon him a policy of perpetual war abroad and war at home, therefore he had parted with him. "Germany united and Europe pacified, that is my grand dream," he said.

Reports are current in New York that Leland Stanford and Charles Crocker have joined hands, and that Vice President Crocker wishes to take the office of the Presidency of the S. P. R. Co. in place of Mr. Huntington.

The Clinton Age figures it out that the Iowa corn fields this year produced $20 per acre at a cost of $8 per acre, leaving the farmer a net profit of $12 from every acre devoted to this crop.

The British Government has advanced $400,000 to enable the Midland Great Western Railroad of Ireland to connect with the coast in order to pass through the distressed districts.

Dom Pedro has given up all hope of ever reconquering Brazil. He is at present traveling in England.

The Young Men's Republican Club has sixty-eight members.

CRISIS IN PORTUGAL.

Reasons for Anticipating the Overthrow of the Reigning House.

Advices from Portugal are of the utmost gravity. A revolution that would overthrow the house of Braganza may break out at any moment, and the chances would be very much in favor of its success. Young King Carlos is in a predicament from which war with England might be a happy deliverance. The feeling in the nation is almost as intense against the reigning house as it is against the English, and the invalid and inexperienced young monarch is held up to obloquy as the facile tool of Lord Salisbury in robbing Portugal of her colonial possessions.

To defy England on one hand means the loss of all that remains to Portugal and the complete humiliation of that country. To comply with England's demands means the probable if not certain overthrow of the monarchy.

Later information shows that the recent disturbances at Lisbon were much more serious than were at the time reported, both as to the extent of the demonstrations and the force required to suppress them, but those demonstrations also revealed the grave fact that neither the army nor police can be relied upon in any attempt to overthrow the monarchy.

Republican feeling in Portugal is very strong, especially since the revolution in Brazil, with which Portugal has always been intimately associated in sentiment, as in origin, and then the present government of France is decidedly hostile to King Carlos, because of the fact that his wife is a daughter of the Count of Paris. France therefore would not be at all adverse to seeing the house of Orleans weakened by the expulsion of Queen Emilia and her husband from their kingdom.

A FRENCH SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL BLOWN UP.

Ten Pupils are Killed and Many More Wounded—The Cause.

A terrible explosion took place at Bourges, France, Friday, October 10th. A sound as of a tremendous cannonade was heard, followed by white columns of smoke in the direction of the Pyrotechnic School. At first it was thought that some scientific experiment was in progress, but the awful tidings soon spread and a crowd hurried to the spot. Military measures were at once taken to maintain order. Church bells were set ringing, and no one was allowed inside the precincts of the school but relatives and friends of those attending.

The scene was agonizing. As stretcher after stretcher passed by the distracted bystanders tried to lift the sheets that covered the bodies, but only to be met by the sight of mangled remains of flesh or severed arms and legs. General Kerba, commander of the Eighth Army Corps, implored the excited crowd to be calm, and his presence had a good effect.

Inquiry showed ten dead, five of whom were identified. The rest were reduced to ashes. Fifty human feet were found 100 yards away. The explosion was caused by the imprudence of workmen who pounded some liquid melaite into an imperfectly prepared shell, which exploded and caused others to do likewise.

France's Agitation

The agitation in France over the United States tariff law has been greater than ever during the last week. The wildest ideas as to the scope and effect of the law are prevalent. Lyons violently remonstrates against the heavily increased duties on silk; Bordeaux is equally excited about wine, and the whole of France is in a condition of extreme irritation and apprehension, which has been reflected by the newspapers. M. Lockroy treats the idea of a European Zollverein against America as Utopian. He holds that France, unassisted by other countries, can open the gates of the American Chinese wall by profiting by the word "reciprocity" which figures in the new law.

Demand for Treasury Notes.

A special from Washington says the Treasury Department is receiving continual complaints from all parts of the country that the supply of small notes is insufficient for the transaction of business. At the same time the aggregate circulation of all sorts is $62,000,000 more than it was one month ago. The Silver bill brought less relief than was hoped for, largely because the facilities of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing were insufficient. Silver notes of $10 denomination are now being delivered to the department at the rate of $250,000 daily. The Treasury has cut off the exchange of large notes through the Sub-treasury at New York.

Lincoln's Log Cabin.

A Committee from Chicago, in the interest of the World's Fair, visited Washington county, Tenn., last week and bought of Henry Reed the log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln lived when a boy and where his father was married to Nancy Hanks, the certificate being preserved there yet in the County Clerk's office. The price paid for this historical relic was $1,000 and it will be taken down and erected on a prominent site at the World's Fair.

Charles Smith, of Bowne, Mich., has a team of horses 26 years old, whose teeth dropped out and which now chew their oats with a set of false molars, adjusted by a veterinary dentist and held in place by rubber.

A REMARKABLE SUICIDE.

The Tragic Termination of a Lecture.

An extraordinary story is telegraphed from St. Petersburg. It is probable that no romancer ever imagined a more dramatic incident. A young professor of medicine, Koucharsky, closed a lecture on poisonous acid to his class in the laboratory of the University by pouring into a glass some drops of one of the poisons, saying as he drank them, "In two minutes you are going to see a man die before your eyes. Gentlemen, I bid you farewell." The students rushed up and tried to administer an antidote, but it was powerless. At the expiration of the time he had fixed, Koucharsky was a corpse.

There is great excitement in St. Petersburg over the tragic incident. It is generally believed that the professor had gone suddenly insane, for no motive for the act, so far as is known, existed. He leaves a wife of whom he was very fond and two little children. He will be buried with great pomp at the expense of the State.

A NEW LAND LAW.

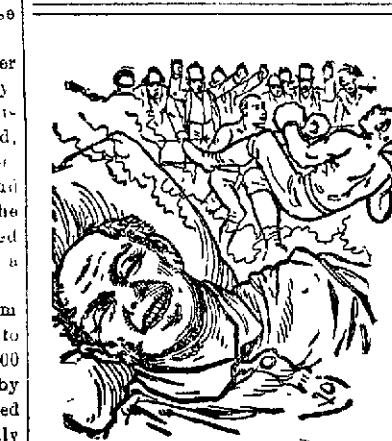

Limitation of the Acreage Allowed to One Person.

The Department of the Interior is sending out a circular which announces an important change in the land laws. By its terms no person can file or enter more than 320 acres of public land hereafter. For instance, if one files on 320 acres of desert land he is forever barred from entering a homestead or filing any other claim under the various acts of Congress providing for the disposal of the public domain. This law, however, will not prevent any one who acquired public land previous to August 30th last from filing upon 320 acres more, provided, he had not exhausted his rights previously.

A new blank for affidavits accompanies the circular, to be used in all entries after August 30th, in which the intending settler swears that he has not after that entered or filed upon a quantity of land which, with the tracts applied for, would make more than 320 acres.

General W. W. Belknap, Secretary of War during President Grant's term, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. It is believed his death occurred between 1 o'clock Saturday night and 9 o'clock Sunday morning. An autopsy disclosed the fact that the immediate cause of death was inflammation of the inner lining of the heart.

NEW TO-DAY.

JENKS' DREAM.
Jenks had a queer dream the other night. He thought he saw a prize-fighter ring, and in the middle of it stood a doughy little champion who met and deliberately knocked over, one by one, a score or more of big, burly-looking fellows, as they advanced to the attack. Giants as they were in size, the valiant pugny proved more than a match for them. He was all so funny that Jenks woke up laughing. He accounted for the dream by the fact that he had just come to the conclusion, after trying nearly every big, drastic pill on the market, that Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, or tiny Sugar-coated Granules, really "knock out" and beat all the big pills hollow. They are of original and only genuine Little Liver Pills.

Beware of imitations, which contain poisonous minerals. Always ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, or tiny Sugar-coated Granules, or Anti-Bilious Granules, One a Dose.

SICK HEADACHE.

Bilious Headache, Bilious Stomach, Bilious Constipation, Bilious Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are gently laxative, or strongly cathartic, according to size of dose. Smallest, Cheapest, Safest to take. 25 cents a trial, by druggists.

The World's Fair.

The World's Fair seems to have at last got down to a solid working foundation. With the Committees appointed, site selected, and Directors working harmoniously the country may expect to witness an exposition in '93 that will compare favorably with that at Paris last year. It must equal the French Exposition or it will be a failure. If it equals it America will have achieved a triumph.

THE KENTUCK MINE.

Senator Jones Has Possession—He Has no Idle Property on the Comstock.

The control of the Kentucky mine has passed from the Stevenson estate into the hands of Hon. John P. and S. L. Jones. At a meeting of the Directors yesterday afternoon, S. L. Jones was appointed Superintendent in place of A. Conrad, resigned. There will be no changes in the Director until the annual meeting of the company next month.—S. F. Report.

Under the Jones management, we may confidently expect that more men will be employed in the mine, and receive $4 a day than hitherto, says the Enterprise.

The Joneses own nothing on the Comstock that is lying idle to-day. They revived mining in Gold Hill in 1882, when every drift and every shaft and every stop in the south-end mines was going to rack and ruin.

The Joneses went in, retimbered the shafts, repaired the drifts, reopened the stopes, and by their indomitable push brought low grade ore within the profitable line of working, and gave the Comstock that new breath which has maintained its healthy existence until to-day.

Several other men were slightly hurt by flying debris and it is considered a miracle that any were not killed. Taylor was the cause of the explosion.

The Sutor Tunnel Suit.

A few weeks ago Frank J. Symmes and others brought suit in equity in the United States Court of Nevada to compel an accounting and repayment of alleged exorbitant salaries and fees from the Union Trust Company at New York, which purchased a mortgage for $600,000 more than the original mortgage. The defendants entered a motion to dismiss the bill for want of jurisdiction. The motion was taken up before Judge Sawyer in San Francisco Saturday and, on hearing, denied, which leaves the suit intact.

The object of the suit is to have the Court declare that the members of the Union Trust Company are trustees only and as such hold the mortgage on the property of the Sutor Tunnel Company by right of purchase.

Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. For Washworth.

To-night at 8 p. m. a special train will leave Reno for Washworth to attend the Republican speaking at that place. The Young Men's Republican Club and speakers will be furnished with tickets, but for all others the round trip ticket will be $1.

CAMPAIGN OPENED.

Republicans Gather to Meet the Candidates and Hear the Issues Discussed.

Yesterday evening, a long time before the hour announced for the Republican speaking, bonfires were lighted and the people assembled upon the principal streets to witness the torchlight procession of the Young Men's Republican Club and to listen to the inspiring strains of music from Hastings' cornet band.

At half past seven o'clock the torchlight procession was formed in front of the Justice Court, with Hastings' band in the lead, closely followed by the officers and members of the Republican Club.

The march was begun, leading at first across to the Riverside Hotel, where the carriages of the officers and speakers of the evening joined in, thence back through the streets to the Opera House, which was already filled with a throng of people, including a great many ladies, who were eager to witness, so far as Washoe county was concerned, the first gun of the campaign.

Hon. George W. Baker, President of the evening, after calling a number of representative Republican citizens to the stage, briefly introduced

FRANCIS O. NEWLANDS

Who was greeted with a round of applause. Mr. Newlands then proceeded to a discussion of the issues of the day from the standpoint of each party, contrasting in plain, logical and eloquent terms the divergent spirits which have animated Republican and Democratic legislation and politics. The silver bill was taken up and the speaker showed to whom the people of the West are indebted for the passage of that bill, as well as why, in account of the vast and various interests of the country a free coinage measure was impossible at this time to pass.

Mr. Newlands paid tribute to Jones, Stewart and Bartine for the able and successful manner in which they had championed the silver question in Congress. The difference and effect of protection as against free trade was clearly shown, and now in the principle, the Republican party had ever been on the side of the best interests of the people. After considering the history of the parties in regard to the different national issues which have appeared at various times, Mr. Newlands proceeded to come home to the people by a discussion of the needs and exigencies of the State of Nevada, showing how they would best be subserved under Republican rule. Revirement in State expenses and attention to internal improvement, said the speaker, are the vital issues before us. Nothing so affects the prosperity of a State, as the question of low taxation. He then went on to show how that the present high rate of taxation in this State was prohibitory of the investment of capital in enterprises of an extensive character. The platforms of the two parties were compared. The abusive character of the Democratic platform, which casts reproach upon the State, stigmatizing it as the "rotten borough," and the abuse of all manner of impurity; and of the hopeful utterances of the Republican party which pledges itself to trenchment and reform were powerfully contrasted.

After touching upon the fact that unity and harmony in the party is a necessity for its success, and briefly outlining a proposed system of State development, the speaker closed amid a storm of applause.

HON. C. C. POWNING.

Mr. Powning was the next speaker, and he addressed the assembly upon the necessity of a Republican victory this year for the welfare of the State. He reviewed the work of the present Republican Congress with a synopsis of its leading measures.

GOVERNOR R. X. COLCORD.

Mr. Colcord was introduced after Mr. Powning and met with an enthusiastic reception.

In straightforward manner, which at times elicited considerable mirth, he deduced his position. He said he was owned by no man, and in the exercise of the duties of the office to which he aspired, should he be elected, he was willing at all times to receive advice, but would in the end follow the dictates of his own conscience.

OTHER CANDIDATES.

Hon. John E. Jones, candidate for Surveyor-General, was next introduced. He said that he would refrain from making any extended remarks, from the fact that the year was late and that his opponent for office was a favorite son of Washoe county. However, if the people believed that he had faithfully served the State in his official capacity the preceding four years he ought to receive the votes of the Republican party this year, even in Washoe county.

John Egan was next introduced, and in a few well chosen words stated that he was a candidate for State Treasurer, and asked the support of the people.

Orvis Ring, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the next speaker, was introduced. Mr. Ring was received with vociferous applause, and made a pleasant address, stating that he had been in the ranks teaching for thirty-five years and thought he deserved the office to which he was nominated, if he could be elected.

HON. R. L. FULTON.

Mr. Fulton was now introduced and entertained the audience with some general remarks relative to the party and ticket. Mr. Fulton spoke of the Prohibition party, and showed how every vote for them was one away from the Republican roll.

The meeting adjourned at 10:30 with three rousing cheers and a tiger for the success of the campaign.

A FEARFUL TRAGEDY.

Two Lives Lost in an Attempt by Masked Men to Clean Out an Obnoxious Saloon.

Near the Bradford quicksilver mine, in Lake county, California, Friday evening several masked men raided a saloon kept by Stephen Rich and wife, the result being one of the worst tragedies reported from that part of the State for a long time. As soon as the raiders entered the place the shooting began, right and left, and Mrs. Rich was fatally wounded, being shot three or four times. Rich was also wounded, and W. R. McGuire was shot dead. During the fight Mrs. Rich pulled the mask off one man, whom she recognized as Henry Arcaero, an employe at the mine. McGuire also worked there. Fred Bennett, a hanger-on at the saloon, escaped through a window. Tar and feathers, supposed to have been intended for him, was afterward found near by.

The raid was no doubt made to permanently clear the saloon of the persons occupying it, particularly Bennett. Whether murder was first intended or not, none but the raiders can tell.

An inquest is being held. No arrests have yet been made, though the parties are shadowed awaiting the result of the inquest.

An Ohio Tragedy.

At Orroville, Ohio, Saturday, Coroner Boydston had arrested John Sweeney and had him in custody on the platform. Just as an engine was coming along a "pal" of Sweeney's stepped up from behind and pushed Boydston in front of it. The Coroner was terribly mangled, and must have died instantly. He retained his grip on Sweeney, however, as he went down, and the prisoner was fatally injured. The man who pushed him down was caught and placed in jail.

The Genoa Courier has this: This season H. Springmeyer raised 89 tons of barley on 75 acres of land. These figures were taken from the drill in seeding and from the machine as the grain was threshed and weighed. This gives an average of 2,373 1/2 pounds to the acre, an immense yield. If any one in the valley can make a similar showing of heavy yields in this or other crops we shall be glad to hear from them, for such facts advertise the richness of our soil.

The demands of the new navy will necessitate the withdrawal of all officers detailed at various colleges of marine engineering.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GORE, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.
